

Onsite Training to ANSA and Custom Staff

Date: 27th Jan, 2018

GEO CHEM MIDDLE EAST
A F G H A N I S T A N
Inspection & Testing Company
Fuel | Construction | Food

Geo Chem Middle East is a leading international independent inspection and testing company with over five decades of experience in providing quality testing and inspection services in 30 countries around the world.

Through our knowledge sharing program and as part of our commitment, building the capacity of Afghan cadre in quality inspection and testing of petroleum products and lubricant.

We took the initiative to train and build the capacity government personnel from Afghanistan National Standard Authority (ANSA) and Afghanistan General Directorate of Custom under extensive theoretical and practical training program.

The participants introduced by ANSA and Afghanistan Custom trained various areas of fuel testing and laboratory management. From practically fuel sampling taking, physical quality inspection and lab testing in accordance international standards, safety and health regulations.

The participants showed great satisfaction and express gratitude to the trainers and Geo Chem Middle East –Afghanistan.

All the participant provided the convenience of to learn and practice on-the-job-site in Geo Chem Middle East Hairatan Laboratory which is ISO 9001:2015 and ISO 17025 accredited. The training is ongoing for the final batch of the participants.

